

George Derwin received his call to the Bar in 1986.

He has provided business and commercial legal services to small “mom & pop” sized businesses, all the way up to major companies such as Manitoba Hydro. George has experience in the preparation of all types of commercial agreements including shareholder, partnership and joint venture contracts.

George represented Manitoba Hydro International in all international transactions in some 70 countries. George negotiated and helped draft the contracts for the management of the electrical power systems for the countries of Nigeria and Liberia.

Since 2007, George has been a bar admission course instructor, teaching in the areas of negotiation, business law, and real estate.

George is past-president of CLEA.
