        [ ]   was cohabiting with (his/her) common-law partner: (name)

        [ ]   was separated from (his/her) common-law partner, (name), but their relationship had not been terminated

        [ ]   had a common-law relationship with (name)that had been terminated

[ ]   was predeceased by (his/her) common-law partner.

If, at the time of (his/her) death, the deceased had one or more common-law partners, specify the date(s) when (the/each) relationship began and, if applicable, the date(s) when the partners separated or the common-law relationship terminated.

If, at the time of (his/her) death, the deceased had a spouse in addition to one or more common-law partners, also specify the date of the marriage, and, if applicable, the date when the spouses separated.

NOTE: For the purposes of this Form,

" common-law partner " of a deceased person means

(a) a person who, with the deceased, registered a common-law relationship under section 13.1 of The Vital Statistics Act , or

(b) a person who, not being married to the deceased, cohabited with him or her in a conjugal relationship

(i) for a period of at least three years, or

(ii) for a period of at least one year and they are together the parents of a child.

" termination of a common-law relationship " means

(a) where the common-law relationship was registered with Vital Statistics (under section 13.1 of The Vital Statistics Act), the dissolution of the relationship has been registered with Vital Statistics; or

(b) where the common-law relationship was not registered with Vital Statistics, the parties to the common-law relationship have lived separate and apart for a period of at least three years.

4.   THAT no marriage of the deceased or any form of marriage he/she went through was ever dissolved or annulled, the deceased was not separated from a spouse or common-law partner, and no common-law relationship of the deceased was ever terminated.

NOTE: If otherwise, give particulars of any dissolution or annulment of a marriage or any termination of a common-law relationship, and state whether there has been a remarriage or subsequent common-law relationship. If there has been a remarriage or subsequent common-law relationship, also state whether the deceased's former spouse and/or common-law partner was alive at the time of the deceased's death.

If at the time of the intestate's death, the intestate was living separate and apart from a spouse and/or one or more common-law partners, state this fact and whether, in each case:

(a) during the period of separation, either the intestate or the spouse, or both, filed a petition for divorce and whether such petition is pending or has been dealt with by way of final order at the time of the intestate's death; or

(b) if the common-law relationship of the intestate and his/her common-law partner was registered under section 13.1 of The Vital Statistics Act , the dissolution of the common-law relationship was registered under section 13.2 of that Act before the intestate's death; or

(c) if the common-law relationship of the intestate and his/her common-law partner was not registered under section 13.1 of The Vital Statistics Act , they had been living separate and apart for a period of at least three years at the time of the intestate's death; or

(d) during the period of separation, either the intestate or the spouse or common-law partner, or both, made an application for an accounting or equalization of assets under The Marital Property Act or The Family Property Act and whether such application is pending or has been dealt with by way of final order at the time of the intestate's death; or

(e) before the intestate's death, the intestate and the spouse or common-law partner divided their property in a manner that was intended by them, or appears to have been intended by them, to separate and finalize their affairs in recognition of their marriage or common-law relationship breakdown.

5.   THAT the deceased had the following issue:

Name	Date of Birth	Name of other parent
